

1939

BEAUMARIS PORT HEALTH AUTHORITY

I beg to submit the following report for the year 1939. (modified requirements set out in Memo 204/SA as indicated By Circular 1937 - 11th January, 1940.)

Table A (i) Only one ship reported defective, but it was remedied in a few hours.

No ships reported with any Infectious Disease on board.
No. ships examined by Medical Officer & Inspectors were 59.

(ii) Circular 1937.

(iii) There was no change as regards source of water supply.

(iv) All port Sanitary Regulations carried out as usual, Several minor cases treated, e.g. opened abscess of arm, cut hand dressed, and Radial Artery Haemorrhage treated.

Table B Circular 1937.

Table C) None

Table D) None

Table E Traps laid at Menai Bridge. None caught yet. I hope that
" F we shall be successful in eliminating and cleansing this source.

Table G No action taken.

Table H) Not applicable

Table J One W.C. defective - quickly remedied when reported.

(c) (i) No action necessary.

(ii) "Shell-fish" - Typhoid Case found at Tregarth, cockles, winkles, mussel beds under observation. No fresh case occurred (this happened August 1939).

Over the under P.H.A. will be made at next meeting of D.S.A. (1934). { Samples taken from beds Owen Wai No 1 & No 2. begin bed. Bact. Result :- Fusca B. coli in hundred found. Shellfish unfit for human consumption in raw state.

(iii) Rats Traps at Menai Bridge.

This Warehouse is now empty but traps will be again laid.

G. IDWAL GRIFFITHS,
M.R.C.S., L.R.C.P., D.P.H.

Port Health Medical Officer.

